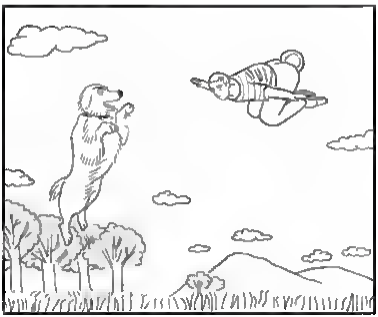
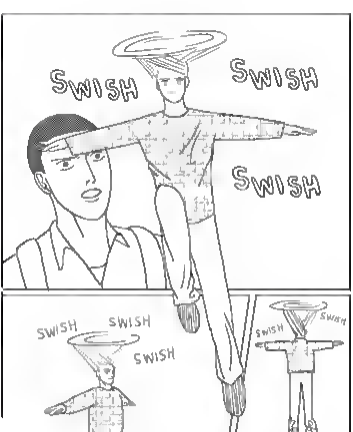
EP 15 Play Frisbee



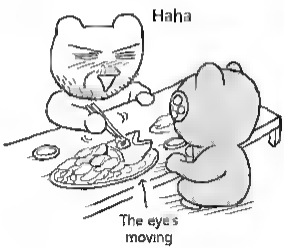
Every episode of 10th Dimension Boys was supposed to be short but starting from this episode, long episodes were started to be made

EP 56 Going Home, Songjo?



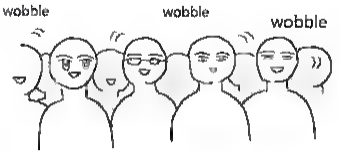
EP 96 Sashimi

Inspired by my childhood memory when my dad was putting wasabi on the fish's eye that was alive



2 Characters

Orginally, 10th Dimension Boys didn't have fixed characters



After I signed the Webtoon contract with Naver, I decided to put fixed characters

Then took "Ahn Ganhan" and "Hah Songjo" from my other comic "Somimu".

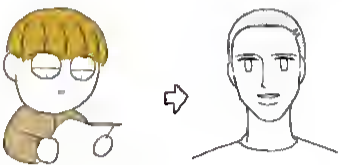
Ahn Ganhan



Hah Songjo

It will be funny
if a well going story
suddenly ends
with a strange twist

That's how 10th Dimension Boys was made one by one

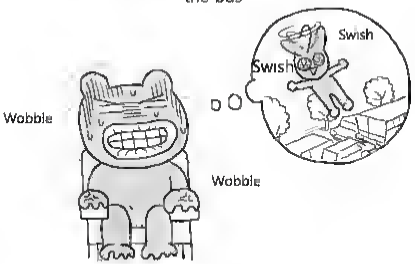
Inspired when I was stuck in traffic on the bus



EP 62 The Future Lover

Based on the 1st episode of "Somimu"

10th Dimension Boys
